

Prayer for the young and our families with Kateri

Oh, most humble Kateri
I seek your love and prayers
I turn to you for your inspiration.
May I know the power of humility, the strength of seeking God's will in everything I do this day.
the compassion to care this way for those who are weak and in need of help, and the faith to forgive those who walk an hurtful violent path.
Pray with me Kateri that through us, God our Creator
Will comfort the orphan, watch over the neglected child,
And wait with the youth who go astray.
You lost your parents and found others along the way to Care for you and guide you, May all Parents and grandparents stay healthy, seek the selfless love of Jesus and give where giving is most needed.
May they make wise decisions and heed daily the Wisdom of the Great Spirit.
Your spirit was strong and your love for Jesus is deep
May I trust that Christ will turn my weakness Into His strength and meekness, so that whatever comes to me this day, I may choose to do God's will and faithful will I stay. AMEN

6thrd Sunday of Easter

A beautiful aspect of creation is the congruence of spiritual law. It is as though God uses the created world to deepen our understanding of the spiritual order. And so it is with love, as Jesus teaches us in today's Gospel.

Jesus says we are to abide in his love, as he abides in love with the Father, and that in order to do so, we must love others.

As with forgiveness or mercy or grace, we will only receive in the measure we extend these gifts to others. As a cistern can only receive the flow of fresh water when there is an outlet from it, if we are to be immersed in the stream of God's love, the love must flow through us freely to people around us.

Jesu tells us an abundant outpouring of God's love is available to us, his friends, and many of us don't experience the blessings or fruit of that in full measure. The Gospel today would point us to the outlet valve as the first place to look for a remedy to this.

Fear, pride, hurt, criticisms, selfishness are impediments to love. Let us pray for the grace of humility, that we might see one another through the eyes of Christ and serve freely in love. .Kathleen Giffin, Hinton, Alb (Living with Christ).

Honoring Mary Month of May

For centuries, the Catholic Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor Mary, Mother of God. Not just a day in May, but the entire month. In medieval times, similar customs abounded, all centering around the practice of expelling winter, as May 1st was considered the start of new growth.
