

Prayer for the young and our families with Kateri

Oh, most humble Kateri
I seek your love and prayers
I turn to you for your inspiration.
May I know the power of humility, the strength of seeking God's will in everything I do this day.
the compassion to care this way for those who are weak and in need of help, and the faith to forgive those who walk an hurtful violent path.
Pray with me Kateri that through us, God our Creator
Will comfort the orphan, watch over the neglected child,
And wait with the youth who go astray.
You lost your parents and found others along the way to Care for you and guide you, May all Parents and grandparents stay healthy, seek the selfless love of Jesus and give where giving is most needed.
May they make wise decisions and heed daily the Wisdom of the Great Spirit.
Your spirit was strong and your love for Jesus is deep
May I trust that Christ will turn my weakness Into His strength and meekness, so that whatever comes to me this day, I may choose to do God's will and faithful will I stay. AMEN

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's

Gospel has Jesus expressing some pretty strong words to peter. When Peter challenges what Jesus is telling the disciples about his death and resurrection. Jesus tells him that he thinks like a human and not like God. "Get behind me, Satan" is so strong it's easy to see that it's not a good thing. One has to wonder- how can humans ever think like God does?

One clue is to consider losing vs, saving our lives. If we can lose our human way of seeing the world – give up our worldly expectation – maybe we can train ourselves to think differently and be open to what God wants. If we can think more like God, maybe w can embrace the crosses we need to bear more readily, or respond quickly to the needs of others.

We may already be struggling with our daily prayer routine. We may not have time to join a Bible study, catch an invitational video or podcast. Any of these might help save ourselves from limited and often selfish human ways of thinking. While there are many options for learning more about the mind of Jesus in our connected world, our time is still limited. What part of our lives could we lose in order to save the parts that need to be more Christ like?
