

Prayer for the young and our families with Kateri

Oh, most humble Kateri
I seek your love and prayers
I turn to you for your inspiration.
May I know the power of humility, the strength of seeking God's will in everything I do this day.
the compassion to care this way for those who are weak and an hurtful violent path.

Pray with me Kateri that through us, God our Creator
Will comfort the orphan, watch over the neglected child,
And wait with the youth who go astray.
You lost your parents and found others along the way t

Care for you and guide you, May Parents and grandparents stay healthy, seek the selfless love of Jesus and give where giving is most needed.
May they make wise decisions and heed daily the Wisdom of the Great Spirit.
Your spirit was strong and your love for Jesus is deep
May I trust that Christ will turn my weakness
Into His strength and meekness, so that whatever comes to me this day, I may choose to do God's will and faithful will I stay. AMEN

28th Sunday of ordinary Time

I write to deadlines and to available space. I allot the time and space required for the project and move on. For many, especially those who procrastinate, this is difficult to do. Many people yearn to achieve things, but they don't burn.

In today's Gospel, the rich, young man yearns for salvation but he isn't burning. He is willing to do the minimum to gain eternal life, but he is very hesitant to step outside his comfort zone and go the extra mile.

He is much like many of us. Do we burn with a passion for eternal life? Are we willing to do more than the minimum, which may be in our comfort zone, to gain eternal life?

We fool ourselves if we think we can gain eternal life by our own merit. We need wisdom which comes from God. We need the Word of God to judge the "intentions of the heart." "For humans, [Salvation] is impossible, but not to God."

Today, let us pray for the wisdom of God to fill our hearts so that we may give ourselves over to God. Then we can step out of our comfort Zone and burn with a desire to serve God. Anthony Chezzi, Sudbury, ON (Living with Christ)

St. Ignatius of Loyola spoke about indifference to wealth and other blessings in our lives. He taught that we should use the things of this world only to the extent that they help us achieve our ultimate purpose: to praise, reverence, and serve God, and by doing so, to save our souls. According to St. Ignatius, we ought to rid ourselves of anything that gets in the way of this goal.
