

Prayer for the young and our families with Kateri

Oh, most humble Kateri
I seek your love and prayers.
I turn to you for your inspiration.

May I know the power of humility; the strength of seeking God's will in everything I do this day; the compassion to care this way for those who are weak and in need of help; and the faith to forgive those who walk a hurtful violent path.

Pray with me Kateri that through us, God our Creator will comfort the orphan, watch over the neglected child, and wait with the youth who go astray.

You lost your parents and found others along the way to care for you and guide you. May all parents and grandparents stay healthy, seek the selfless love of Jesus, and give where giving is most needed. May they make wise decisions and heed daily the Wisdom of the Great Spirit.

Your spirit was strong and your love for Jesus is deep. May I trust that Christ will turn my weakness into His strength and meekness; so that whatever comes to me this day, I may choose to do God's will and faithful will I stay. AMEN

5th Sunday of Easter

I remember and treasure the last words that my father said to me. For years, our telephone conversations had concluded with me saying, "I love you, Dad." And he would laughingly answer, "Me too!" But on that day, he brought our conversation to close by saying: "I love you." I was the one to say, "Me too." I hardly noticed it, but that night, when I learned of his sudden and unexpected death, and for all the years since, I have held on to those words, and they have grown in impact and significance.

On the last night that Jesus and his disciples were together, Jesus said, "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another." These parting words of Jesus must have taken on a deeper and deeper meaning and impact as the years passed.

Jesus says, "just as I have loved you, you also should love one another." In committing ourselves to a way of life that is not always easy, is often challenging, and has the potential to change the world. The words grow in impact and significance as we see how much our world needs love, the love Jesus commanded us to live and share. Love one another. Anne M Walsh, St John's NL (Living with Christ)

Pope Leo X1V

Brothers and sisters in Christ, let us all therefore strive to love the Lord our God and to show this love in each one of our actions and deeds, in our words and interactions with each other. Let us all continue to be good and worthy bearers of our faith to everyone whom we encounter in life and let us all do our very best so that we can commit ourselves ever more wholeheartedly to whatever missions and callings that He has entrusted to us in our respective areas in life. May the Lord be with us always, and may He strengthen each one of us so that we may always be faithful and strong in our living of our Christian life, in each moment. Amen.
