

Prayer for the young and our families with Kateri

Oh, most humble Kateri
I seek your love and prayers.
I turn to you for your inspiration.

May I know the power of humility; the strength of seeking God's will in everything I do this day; the compassion to care this way for those who are weak and in need of help; and the faith to forgive those who walk a hurtful violent path.

Pray with me Kateri that through us, God our Creator will comfort the orphan, watch over the neglected child, and wait with the youth who go astray.

You lost your parents and found others along the way to care for you and guide you. May all parents and grandparents stay healthy, seek the selfless love of Jesus, and give where giving is most needed. May they make wise decisions and heed daily the Wisdom of the Great Spirit.

Your spirit was strong and your love for Jesus is deep. May I trust that Christ will turn my weakness into His strength and meekness; so that whatever comes to me this day, I may choose to do God's will and faithful will I stay. AMEN

23th Sunday of Ordinary Time

From the Pastor's Desk.

My dear friends, this weekend's scripture readings remind us of the wisdom, humility, and commitment needed to follow Christ more closely. The Book of Wisdom acknowledges how limited our human understanding is. If we struggle even with earthly matters, how much more do we need God's Spirit to guide our steps in the way of truth? The Psalmist prays, "Teach us to count our days" asking God to help us live wisely and not waste the precious time we are given.

In the Gospel, Jesus speaks very directly about the cost of discipleship. He tells us that following Him must come before possessions, plans, and even family ties. He uses striking images: carrying the cross and letting go of everything. This does not mean abandoning our families or responsibilities, but rather making Christ the foundation of all our relationships, decisions, and choices.

St. Paul, in his letter to Philemon, offers us a concrete example. He asks Philemon to receive Onesimus, not as a slave, but as a beloved brother in Christ. The love of Christ transforms the way we see others and how we live together.

God bless you and your family and keep you close to His Sacred Heart, protecting from all the possible dangers.
