

Prayer for the young and our families with Kateri

Oh, most humble Kateri
I seek your love and prayers.
I turn to you for your inspiration.

May I know the power of humility; the strength of seeking God's will in everything I do this day; the compassion to care this way for those who are weak and in need of help; and the faith to forgive those who walk a hurtful violent path.

Pray with me Kateri that through us, God our Creator will comfort the orphan, watch over the neglected child, and wait with the youth who go astray.

You lost your parents and found others along the way to care for you and guide you. May all parents and grandparents stay healthy, seek the selfless love of Jesus, and give where giving is most needed. May they make wise decisions and heed daily the Wisdom of the Great Spirit.

Your spirit was strong and your love for Jesus is deep. May I trust that Christ will turn my weakness into His strength and meekness; so that whatever comes to me this day, I may choose to do God's will and faithful will I stay. AMEN

25th Sunday of Ordinary Time

From the Pastor's Desk.

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

The Biblical readings in this weekend liturgy reminds us to be faithful stewards of everything that God has entrusted to us. Amos warns against exploiting the poor, reminding us that God sees injustice and defends the vulnerable. The psalm proclaims God's greatness in raising the poor from the dust. Paul urges us to pray for all, especially those in authority, so that peace and justice may prevail. Jesus, in the Gospel, reminds us that we cannot serve both God and wealth. He calls us to use our gifts wisely and generously in service of others.

In short, the Lord wants us to be trustworthy stewards, using our time, talents, and resources to build God's kingdom, especially by caring for the poor, praying for peace, and living with integrity. True wealth is found not in what we keep, but in what we share.

God Bless you and your Families, protecting from all the possible dangers.
