

Prayer for the young and our families with Kateri

Oh, most humble Kateri
I seek your love and prayers.
I turn to you for your inspiration.

May I know the power of humility; the strength of seeking God's will in everything I do this day; the compassion to care this way for those who are weak and in need of help; and the faith to forgive those who walk a hurtful violent path.

Pray with me Kateri that through us, God our Creator will comfort the orphan, watch over the neglected child, and wait with the youth who go astray.

You lost your parents and found others along the way to care for you and guide you. May all parents and grandparents stay healthy, seek the selfless love of Jesus, and give where giving is most needed. May they make wise decisions and heed daily the Wisdom of the Great Spirit.

Your spirit was strong and your love for Jesus is deep. May I trust that Christ will turn my weakness into His strength and meekness; so that whatever comes to me this day, I may choose to do God's will and faithful will I stay. AMEN

David Shulist S.J.

"Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God acceptable worship with reverence and awe." (Hebrews 12:28)

My dear friends, today's readings remind us of the importance of gratitude and faith. In the first reading, Naaman the Syrian, a foreign soldier, is healed of leprosy after obeying the prophet Elisha. Grateful for his healing, he praises the God of Israel. In the Gospel, ten lepers are healed by Jesus, but only one, a Samaritan and a foreigner, returns to thank Him.

Both stories show that God's mercy is for everyone who believes, not just for a few. Gratitude is the natural response of a heart touched by God's goodness. When we are thankful, our eyes are opened to see how much God blesses us each day.

Sometimes we forget to thank God for the simple gifts—life, faith, family, and health. Yet, when we return to Him with a thankful heart, we find deeper healing and peace.

Let us ask the Lord to make us like the grateful Samaritan—ready to return to Jesus every day in prayer, worship, and service, saying with all our hearts: "Thank you, Lord, for all your blessings."

God Bless you and your Families, protecting from all the possible dangers. Amen.
